THE HOLY BIBLE

Please memorize this portion

PSALMS 148:7-14

7. Praise the LORD from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps:
8. Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word:
9. Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:
10. Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:
11. Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:
12. Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:
13. Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.
14. He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

GOD IS WORKING FOR YOU
THROUGH HIS SILENCE!

Sis. Angeline

Greetings in the resurrected name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ to all my extended Echo of His Call family members. It always brings me great joy to share what the Lord has been speaking to me and dealing with in my own life. I hope and pray that what I write will encourage you to move forward in faith - regardless of the situation you are in - because if He can do it for me, He will certainly do it for you. With these words, let us encourage one another and march forward in victory!

ECHO OF HIS CALL - (Marching towards 60th year)

Estd. 1969

from your dearly beloved brother...

... God's soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. - Judges 10:16.

Dearly beloved friends,

Our God is good, and He lives forevermore. With the purpose of doing a new work through you, He leads you in His ways. When you stumble along life's path, He stretches out His hand to uphold and establish you. As He remembers the painful experiences you have gone through, His heart is moved with compassion toward you. Therefore, take courage - your days of deliverance are drawing near.

Then the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the Lord, and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the Lord and did not serve Him.

- Judges 10:6

Because the Israelites turned away from God and served foreign deities, the Lord withdrew from them. As a result, they were severely oppressed by their enemies. But when they acknowledged their sin and returned to Him wholeheartedly, the Lord was moved with compassion and delivered them. The nation once again enjoyed victory and peace.

Moreover, the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed. And the children of Israel cried out to the Lord, saying, 'We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals'.

- Judges 10:9-10

Hearing the cries of the Israelites, the Lord was moved with compassion and delivered them from their oppressors.

So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the Lord. And His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

- Judges 10:16

You do not endure your suffering alone; God shares in the pain you feel. No one may fully understand the depth of your struggles, but God understands completely. Do not lose heart. Be strong and courageous. The Lord will perform an extraordinary miracle for you.

OUR MISSION POLICY

We should expound and teach the contemporary generation the undiluted teachings of the ancient and early Apostles. It is the need of the hour.

By the grace of God, the ministries of Nehemiah Bible Colleges continue to function well, and we remain grateful for His unfailing faithfulness and guidance.

Current year Chepauk Nehemiah Bible College students with Senior Pastor Sreekumar, ACA, Ekangipuram (Alumni 1996-1998)

We are pleased to announce that our College has now received accreditation from the Nations Association for Theological Accreditation (NATA). This significant achievement marks an important step forward in strengthening our academic standards and widening the impact of our ministry.

Additionally, beginning with the current academic year, we have launched the Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.) program. This new course is designed to equip students more effectively with sound Biblical knowledge, deeper theological understanding, and practical ministry training.

Special retreat of our Nehemiah Bible College students at Mahabalipuram

On January 24th, we held a special Students' Retreat at Mahabalipuram. During this spiritually enriching gathering, Samuel Aaron ministered God's Word on the theme "Intimacy with Christ." The sessions were deeply edifying, and our students were strengthened and encouraged through meaningful fellowship, uplifting worship, and enriching teaching centred on Jesus Christ.

We humbly request your continued prayers for the ministries of the Bible College. Please uphold us in prayer, asking the Lord to bless the upcoming academic year with a good number of new students and to continue using this institution for His glory.

resurrected Christ, may He speak into your situation as you continue reading.

The story of Good Friday and Easter was foretold thousands of years ago - indeed, before the foundation of the world. It remains the greatest event in human history. Historically, scientifically, and spiritually, it continues to captivate hearts across the world.

The Resurrection narrative is often wrapped into three days:

Good Friday, Silent Saturday, and Resurrection Sunday.

We speak much about Good Friday and rejoice in Resurrection Sunday. But what about Silent Saturday? I call it "silent" because Scripture reveals very little about that day. Nothing dramatic is recorded. It is quiet. It is still. There is no visible action.

Many imagine Jesus still hanging on the cross that day - a painful reminder to the disciples of:

The pain of broken promises

The place of punishment and shame

The picture of failure and defeat

The point of no return

Good Friday breaks us. Resurrection Sunday lifts us. But Silent Saturday forms us.

It is the day when nothing seems to happen - yet everything is happening. The day when God says nothing - yet His plan is unfolding. The day when the world sees stillness - but heaven sees movement.

1. Saturday Is the Day We Do Not Understand

Even though Jesus Christ had clearly said, 'After three days I will rise again' Mark 8:31), the trauma of Friday drowned out the promise.

Saturday is the day when:

- God seem to be hidden
- Prayers seem unanswered
- Faith feels fragile

The disciples were devastated. Jesus Christ had died. Their dreams, hopes, and faith were shattered - buried with Him. If this was the fate of their Master, what would become of them? That Saturday morning was filled with pain, sorrow, fear, and confusion. Broken and terrified, they hid behind locked doors.

Many of us are living in our own "Saturdays" - shutting ourselves away from the world.

This message is for you!

Jesus Christ entered their locked room and spoke one word: "Peace." I pray this will be God's prophetic word over your silent Saturday - PEACE.

... When the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you!'

- John 20:19.

Jesus said 'Peace be with you'

Joseph received dreams from God, yet found himself in a pit and later in prison. No voice. No explanation. No clarity. But God was working behind the scenes to position him for his purpose.

After silence of God, miracle happened!

When the Israelites stood before the Red Sea - with Pharaoh behind them and mountains on both sides - fear and doubt overwhelmed them. God seemed silent. Yet in that silence, He was preparing a miracle (Exodus 14:13-14).

Saturday reminds us that silence is not abandonment.

2. God Does His Deepest Work in the Dark!

God often works most powerfully when we see nothing at all.

God's Creations

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. - Genesis 1:1,2.

Darkness covered everything, but the Spirit of God was still hovering. He was working - though unseen.

When your prayers seem unanswered...

When your breakthrough is delayed...

When your heart is waiting...

God is still moving behind the scenes.

While the disciples mourned on Silent Saturday, Jesus was not inactive. Scripture reveals that He:

Descended into the lower parts of the earth (Ephesians 4:9)

Disarmed principalities and powers (Colossians 1:2:15)

Took the keys of death and Hades - (Revelation 1:18)

The world saw silence.

Heaven saw victory!

You may feel God is silent - but rest assured, He is working in your dark Saturdays to prepare your victorious Sunday. Do not be discouraged my dear brothers and sisters, silence and darkness does not mean that God is doing nothing.

Jonah spent three dark days in the belly of the fish. They felt like punishment, but they were preparation - God was reshaping his heart for a greater mission.

Daniel spent a silent night in the lions' den. But God was busy shutting the mouths of lions - (Daniel 6:22). God is shutting every mouth, every plan, every arrow that is rising against you. He is working in the dark.

Daniel spent a silent night in the lions' den

3. Saturday Teaches Us to Trust Without Evidence!

Faith on Sunday is celebration.

Faith on Saturday is surrender.

Saturday faith says:

"I don't see it yet, but God is faithful."

"I don't feel it yet, but His promise stands."

"I don't understand it yet, but He is still good."

Abraham was waiting for Isaac. God promised a son, but years passed in silence. Romans 4:20 says, ... He did not waver through unbelief ... Saturday seasons build unwavering faith. Do you think it was easy for Abraham to have such unwavering faith? Biologically it was impossible.

People might have asked, Did you actually know this was the promise of God or the intentions of your heart? Every day he saw Sarah, his heart would have sunk, but still he held on to the promise.

Don't let your faith waver by what you see. You will see a physically withered Sarah - but see it with spiritual eyes. He who has promised is a Promise Keeper. It is only because of that, Abraham's Saturday ended in a miracle that shaped the history of the world.

Dear friends, you don't need evidence. Trust in Him. Hold on to Him - He will end your Saturday with a miracle. Your Saturdays will enable you to grow roots of faith.

4. Saturday Prepares Us for Resurrection!

What many of us often forget is that Saturday is a day of preparation for the great miracle that is going to unfold on Sunday. If Sunday arrived too quickly, we would miss the transformation that waiting produces. Saturday not only shapes us; it deepens us, strengthens us, and purifies our motives.

David was anointed to be king at the age of seventeen in

PIT TO PALACE

(Life experiences of Pastor S. Sam Selva Raj)

“Whoever reads, let him understand” (Matthew 24:15)

GOD WANTS YOU TO BE FAITHFUL TO HIS CALL!

God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. - 1 Corinthians 1:9.

In 1969, when I accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour, I joined the ministry of Pastor S. Devadasan, the editor of The Herald of His Coming. He gave me spiritual training to serve the Lord, and I ministered under him for three years.

One night, as we were praying together for a long time, he suddenly began to speak about how the world would be in the future and what the Lord intended to do through me. He spoke of great and astonishing things - things I could not even imagine at that time. I had neither the educational qualifications, nor the finances, nor the manpower to accomplish the great ministries he prophesied I would one day undertake.

I explained my inadequacies to him and said, “Pastor, it is enough if I remain the least of the Lord’s servants.”

He replied, “There are two things needed to lift an ordinary man to the greatest heights:

- (a) faith and
- (b) a good conscience,

as written in 1 Timothy 1:19. If you guard these two as carefully as you guard your own eyes, you will surely receive every spiritual promotion I just mentioned.”

By the Lord’s help, I have tried my best to preserve these two qualities all these years.

Just before I began writing this article, the Lord spoke to me. I was speechless and attentive as I heard His gentle whisper. He said:

“My dear son, pause and reflect on this building where you are standing. How did you receive it? Consider the ministries taking place here. Look at the gospel printing press with its latest technology on the ground floor. Have you thought about the church on the first floor where 24-hour prayer is being offered? Have you considered the Nehemiah Bible College ministries and the work being done among the girls studying there? Have you reflected on the Echo of His Call administrative office on the second floor?”

“To help you accomplish ministries beyond your natural capacity, I have given you many Aarons and Joshuas - people more skilled and wiser than you - to assist you in every season. Even when you forget these blessings, I remember you. What were you when I first called you? What are you now? I will enlarge your ministries even more. As my servant Pastor S. Devadasan taught you, remain steadfast in faith and in a good conscience. Do not be discouraged when you walk through rough and difficult paths. Did I not call you? Whatever I have spoken with My mouth, I will fulfil with My own hands. Be strong and do not grow weary.”

Sometimes I am unable to fully comprehend the wonderful and mighty things the Lord accomplishes through me.

Dear brothers and sisters, obey the leaders God has placed over you. Do not walk according to the ways of the world. Remain humble under godly leadership, and preserve your faith and good conscience. If you stand true before God, He will do great things through you. Nothing can hinder God from using you mightily.

To Him alone be all glory and honour.

1 Samuel 16, but he actually became king only at the age of thirty, as recorded in 2 Samuel 5:4: David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years.

Those were long, patiently endured years - years of preparation that shaped him into the greatest king of Israel. The achievements of King David were extraordinary; no other king accomplished what he did. That season of waiting taught him humility - to forgive those who plotted against him. It taught him courage - to face the giants of his life with unwavering boldness. It shaped his character - teaching him that, above all else, the presence of the Holy Spirit was his greatest treasure.

'Cast me not away from Your presence, O Lord.'

- Psalm 51:11

For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

- Psalm 84:10.

Are you waiting for something today? Then know this: God is preparing you for greater things.

Be strong. Take courage. Hold on!

5. Your Saturday Will Not Last Forever!

Since God has guaranteed a resurrected, He powerful Sunday, your dark Saturdays will not last forever.

The silence of Saturday is temporary.

The sorrow of Saturday is temporary.

The confusion of Saturday is temporary.

'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.'

Jesus Christ had already declared: ... 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' John 2:19.

The heavy stone blocking your way will roll aside. Light will break through your Saturdays. The promise will rise, and you will walk out of the grave. If there is a Saturday, there will surely be a Sunday.

I am reminded of Lazarus. He lay in the tomb for four days - four long days of silence, waiting, and complete hopelessness. Everything appeared to be over. But when Jesus Christ stepped in, everything changed.

... Jesus said, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?' John 11:40.

Dear friends, I have walked through many of those dark Saturdays. I know what I am talking about. I know how frightening and heartbreaking they can be. I had almost given up hope in those seasons - until Jesus Christ stepped in and turned my "full stop" into a "comma." If He could do it for me, He can do it for you as well. Your life of shame, defeat, and sorrow will soon come to an end. Your Saturday is not the end of your story.

Jesus Christ came into this world to give purpose and meaning to our lives. He never intended for us to live in sin or defeat. He came and died on the cross in our place so that we might live a victorious life. We are no longer slaves to anything - we are overcomers.

If you find yourself in a Saturday season - waiting, wondering, hurting - take heart. The same God who turned the silence of Saturday into the victory of Sunday is at work in your life right now.

The silence of Saturday is as powerful as the triumph of resurrected Sunday. Hold on to God, and cling to His promises. Your Sunday is on its way - but do not underestimate your silent Saturdays. Trust in Jesus Christ. He alone can turn your silent Saturdays into victorious Sundays. He is the coming King!

- God may be silent, but He is never still.
- He may be hidden, but He is never absent.
- He may be quiet, but He is always faithful.
