THE HOLY BIBLE

Please memorize this portion

Psalm 73:1-10

1. Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.
2. But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.
3. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
4. For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.
5. They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.
6. Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.
7. Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.
8. They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.
9. They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.
10. Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

CHANGE AS GOAL ORIENTED PERSON!

The ambition of the goal oriented person is greater than his life!

(Message delivered by Pastor S. Sam Selva Raj at the Main Church)

There are many people in this world who live with specific ambitions. We, Christians also must not only have ambition in our worldly life, but also have specific ambition in our spiritual life. One must have strong spiritual foundation to lead a very special life. If a person has no spiritual ambition, he/she cannot lead a victorious life.

If a person wants to have something special in his life, he must have independent thinking. Those who have good ambitions and set goals in their lives do not change themselves according to the times. Such people stay strong in their spiritual vision they had got already. Unless we are clear in what we believe, we cannot lead successful lives!

People who keep on changing their convictions can be compared to snakes that wriggle around. Only those who are steady in their convictions can become great leaders who live as channels of blessings to others. “A double-minded man is unstable in all his way” (James 1:8).

1. People who are ambitious in worshipping and serving the Lord!

We read in Joshua 24:15: “And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve... But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord”. Here is a question: “Whom will you serve?” It is true that all of us are serving the Lord Jesus Christ. But do we serve the Lord Jesus Christ alone?

Echo of His Call

“... I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.”

- Joshua 1:5.

Dearly beloved brothers and sisters in the Lord,

Greetings to you in the sweet name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We praise God for all His wonderful blessings bestowed upon us to disseminate His Word to the world. We thank you for your love, care, and support towards us.

We have restarted most of our activities by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our St. Paul's Matriculation School is blessed with a good set of educationists to work with us, to prepare young children. Likewise, our Nehemiah Bible College is seriously marching forward with 15 eminent theologians and training young men and women through regular and residential as well as correspondence courses to carry on the glorious gospel to the next generation.

Our Lord Jesus Christ has equipped our Administrative Office and Gospel Printing Press with a set of hard-working servants of God. We need more servants of God to speed up the work of the Lord.

Our Main Church has six services on Sundays from 5.30 A.M. to 8.00 P.M. in four languages viz., Tamil, English, Telugu, and Hindi. We need dedicated workers to take up the responsibility of our Malayalam Church Ministry. Our Branch Churches are also functioning effectively with

As we read the life of Joshua, we understand that he faced a great challenge in Chapter 24. God spoke to Joshua, "I brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. I blessed them right from the beginning and gave them My name. When they cried unto Me for help, I was with them and sustained them. I delivered them out of all darkness and allowed them to cross the Red Sea, by walking on the dry land. When the Egyptian army pursued them, I made a way for them to escape". After narrating all the good things the Lord had done for the Israelites, Joshua now asks, "Whom will you serve?"

We must have an ambition to serve the Lord. We need a strong vision and a revelation in that conviction to serve the Lord. It is very sad to see in these days that those who have been saved and have been baptized change according to their circumstances. Since they are not strong in their vision to serve the Lord, they lose it when circumstances change! "Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;"

(Proverbs 29:18)

Joshua says, "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord". The people answered and said, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the Lord to serve other gods". We worship the person whom we love the most. The Lord God also expects His children to worship him and Him only. He is zealous in this matter. He is not happy with the people who change their beliefs and doctrines according to the changing times. He will bless only those who have spiritual vision and live accordingly. Many people find themselves in circumstances that are not favourable for them to worship and follow the Lord God. Though many want to follow Jesus Christ, their society doesn't permit them to do so. But I wish to remind you, "God will never forsake His children". He is sure to save the entire household: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household" (Acts 16:31). The Lord's Word promises that everyone in the family will be saved, if one person in that family accepts the Lord Jesus Christ.

No one who has followed Christ truly has gone astray. Even today we find that the world's great leaders are those who serve the Lord Jesus Christ. God Himself reigns over the whole world. People of all continents are coming into the knowledge of His Mighty Name. Like Joshua, let us all serve the Lord and let each member in our family has the strong ambition to serve the Lord forever!

If you are 'secret Christians' and do not confess Jesus Christ openly, the time has come for you to change your life style. Jesus says, "Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 10:32).

The Bible doesn't permit you to lead a fearful life always. If our prayers have to reach the heavens, we have to confess in public what the Lord Jesus has done in our lives. So, live for Jesus boldly. Joshua is a historical Bible character in whose life the Lord had done great miracles and supernatural interventions! When his society failed to lead a pleasing life before the Lord, he was strong in his spiritual convictions and led a victorious life before his people and before his Lord God. Likewise, though you live amidst unfavourable circumstances, you can come out successfully if you turn to be an ambitious person in worshipping Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Ambitious People who give priority to God and the Church of God!

The Bible says, “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you” (Matthew 6:33). Jesus Christ wants us to seek the kingdom of God first. But the worldly people want to seek money and think that only through money all happiness can be acquired! But the Bible proclaims the opposite! When you look for ways to enter the kingdom of God, every blessing that you need in this world will follow you. When we worry about worldly blessings Jesus terms it as, “O you of little faith” (Matthew 6:30). Generally, we do not worry about the things for which we should worry about. Instead we worry about the less important things. Jesus tells us that we need not worry about our food, clothing and worldly requirements. When God can make the wild flowers bloom beautifully and provide for all the wild birds and animals, can't He provide for you and me? Just as we read about Joshua, we are faced with a question here: “For what do you worry about?”

The answer is, “We should worry about seeking the kingdom of God and His righteousness”. But today's Christians primarily seek the blessings of the world and give first preference to worldly matters; the kingdom of God and His righteousness are secondary to them. But they should remember that they have already started on the way to failure!

Oh, Brothers and Sisters! Are you depressed and feel defeated? If you gather all your family members and pray to Jesus Christ, He will take away all your burden and worries; your debts will be cleared; your family and your children will be blessed; your children will have a good future.

If you decide to lead a good life in Jesus in your youth itself and when you look back at your old age, you will find that you have truly lived a victorious life! The Bible promises to those who fear the Lord, “You shall eat the labour of your hands” (Psalm 128:2).

Instead of expecting the other people to help you, God will be your only source. In order to receive such blessings, make efforts to seek the kingdom of God.

Your service to God may be free from hang-overs and external influences. When you work without expecting any worldly reward, God will be pleased to bless you from heaven. Whether your ministry is big or small, accept it happily and do it whole-heartedly. It will bring you perfect blessings. God will send you His timely help. He will comfort you in this world, which has full of sicknesses and sorrows. He is capable of meeting all your needs till the end of your lives. The blessings that we receive from God's hands are wholesome, perfect and superb. We must change our ambition to seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness to receive all the above blessings from God!

Assemble together in Church!

Now-a-days a large number of Christians are ignoring to attend Church Services to worship God on Sundays. Thus they prove that they have no proper binding or attachment with their own Churches, which are given to them by God. They are wrongly attracted by the so called novel servants of God, social medias like television, YouTube and abandoning their God given Pastors and Churches. This is highly dangerous.

(i) Each believer of the Lord Jesus Christ should find out a good Pastor and Church, with the help of God.

(ii) They should attach themselves closely with that Pastor and Church and involve in all activities of the Church without fail.

(iii) They should obey the Pastor in everything and co-operate with him in the Church wholeheartedly and serve the Lord as the Lord leads.

“... not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching” (Hebrew 10:25). “Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God” (Psalm 92:13).

3. Ambitious persons who fulfill the purpose of God!

The Lord Jesus Christ had a purpose when He lived in this world. Many followed Him with various expectations. He had many duties to perform and had great expectations. Yet, He was careful to fulfill the purpose for which He was sent by the Lord: “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work” (John 4:34).

Jesus Christ faced many hurdles and opposition to fulfill His purpose in this world. The people of His time didn't believe Him (Matthew 13:58). He was not accepted as the Messiah (John 1:11). They opposed Him (Matthew 8:34). They teased him as a Carpenter's Son (Matthew 13:55). He was hurt when they asked Him unwanted questions (John 8:6). He was whipped (Matthew 27:26). They spat on his face (Mark 15:19). He was nailed to the cross and they killed him (Mark 15:24).

Amidst all these bitter experiences, Jesus didn't lose track of His purpose for which He came to this world His only ambition was to fulfill the purpose of His Father. We should also turn like Him.

Dear children of God, what is your ambition in life? You must decide to please only the Lord from this movement onwards. If you are strong in your ambition to fulfill God's plan, He will surely bless you.

4. Ambitious people who finish their work!

“I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work which you have given Me to do” (John 17:4). When Jesus Christ prayed like this, we understand that we must also have the responsibility to finish the work, God has given us. Apostle Paul says: “And see, now I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:22-24).

Apostle Paul says that he wishes to finish the ministry he has received from the Lord Jesus Christ. It is interesting to note Paul's desire to finish the ministry that Jesus did earlier.

The same ministry is entrusted in our hands also. God never calls anyone without any purpose. When God delivers a man from darkness and changes him as His own child, God gives a specific job and responsibility to finish it. One has to stay till the end in His purpose and fulfill the work God has given him. In these days, many start with great plans and begin to do that. But when they face obstacles, they give up their purpose and ambition, start procrastinating or turn in some other direction. Finally they embrace great failures. If you have a vision, you must stick to that vision, which should be greater than your own life.

Today as I preach these words people who see me may think, "What problem does Bro. Sam has now?" But they may not know the cost and investment I have put in during the last 54 years to fulfill my vision and ambition. On innumerable occasions I was pressed into great difficulties due to physical weaknesses and financial problems. Many times my own

PROGRESS OF MY VISION IN PUBLICATIONS!

Dr. N. Jeevanandam

Rev. S. Devadasan

Even from my school days, I was very much interested in reading books. Prominent Christian magazines such as “Magizhchi”, by Dr. N. Jeevanandam and “Herald of His Coming”, by Rev. S. Devadasan were of great encouragement and driving force to me. I had a deeper desire to bring these blessings which I received from the Lord about etc. and then started writing the messages I received from the Lord and distributed to others.

Everytime I distributed these handwritten messages that were revealed by God, to my friends and acquaintances, the response was really good. Within a few months, I started distributing these messages through type-written pages and cyclostyling machine by carrying them on my head and shoulder. Again, after some time, I started to distribute these messages in more copies through printed papers, for which I had to pay and thus started my publication ministry. My friend Mr. M. Munusami who was a non-christian helped me a lot in my publication ministry. During these days I was doing the folding and binding works myself.

Mr. M. Munusami

At first, we started Echo of His Call - Tamil and English, bilingual monthly newspaper, then a Tamil and English fortnightly news paper, and then it became two separate registered newspapers viz, Tamil and English monthly newspapers. Now the monthly newspapers are published in Tamil, English, Sinhala, Malayalam, Afrikaans, Telugu, Hindi, Kannada, Marathi, Assamese, Bengali, Urdu, Nepali, Gujarati, Odia, and Punjabi. Echo of His Call is the only global Christian journal that is being published in as many as 16 languages as Registered Newspapers. They are all registered as individual heaven and earth to the limelight through printed pages. But I did not have needed finance to buy stationary.

Therefore, I started to jot down all of my inspirations, and revelations on pieces of paper regularly; and by laying my hands on those papers, started praying and asking the Lord for guidance to proceed further. I became very much worried, as my written papers were piling up in my room. So instead of buying clothes and other things with the pocket money received, I started to buy manifold paper, pen, ink, newspapers with the Government of India. I had to transport them to different places by my bi-cycle and then God blessed me with a motor cycle to travel long distances with my daughter Angeline Selvakumari. Additionally I have made arrangements to publish Echo of His Call Magazine in languages like Sindhi, Konkani and Manipuri, but as I did not get suitable employees, I was unable to execute my plan.

As I write articles for the monthly newspapers in Tamil and English, God has been helping me through the tireless efforts of our Associate Editors, relatives and my trusted friends created problems in my life. There are still some powers that daily discourage me and try to stop me literally from fulfilling the vision God gave me and cause hindrance in my ambitious journey. But I am strong in my belief that I can do all things in Christ Jesus who strengthens me (Philippians 4:13). I know whom I believe (II Timothy 1:12). Along with Job I do confess, "Though He slay me yet will I trust Him" (Job 13:15). I am strong in these convictions. Dear reader, can you also become a man with an ambition to serve the Lord?

Having known that chains and tribulations await him at Jerusalem, St. Paul didn't turn away from the call, he has received from the Lord. He wrote to Timothy, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have kept the faith" (II Timothy 4:7). In order to run the race, God has destined for us to come forward to use our talents and gifts He has given us. Commit to transform yourselves as ambitious persons who can say, "I have happily finished the race destined for me".

5. Ambitious people who finish their work!

goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus". God expects each one of us to have a spiritual goal. God has a reward for those who achieve this goal.

What is our goal? It should be nothing but heaven. When we set everything in our life towards this goal, God blesses us. If our goal is set on worldly things we shall surely fail. Setting behind us all worldly lusts and goodness, and keeping the cross before us, we must progress towards heaven which is our goal. We must also desire in our heart to help those who do not know the Lord Jesus, so that they also receive salvation.

Let our goal be heaven and let us become ambitious persons to reach this precious goal.
